

2011 QBA Honey Court at the Brisbane Ekka (Brisbane Show)

Thursday 11th - Saturday 20th August

Another great display is planned for 2011

Where to find the Honey Court

Due to time changes in re-development plans, the RNA has now confirmed that the Agricultural Pavilion will remain operational during the 2011 Ekka. This will allow the QBA to present the 2011 Honey Court in this Pavilion, as in past years.

What will be there

There will be

information on bees, beekeeping and the industry free demonstrations and free honey tasting and sales of honey and related products.

Our volunteers throughout the 10 days are commercial and hobby beekeepers and have a wealth of information to give.

All beekeepers as well as all school beekeeping groups are welcomed and encouraged to enter this competition.
